Dr. Hofmann is a renowned board-certified orthopedic surgeon and the founder of the Hofmann Arthritis Institute in Salt Lake City, Utah.

After 30 years as Chief of Orthopaedics at the VA Hospital in Salt Lake City and a Clinical Professor at the University of Utah Department of Orthopaedics, Dr. Hofmann left academia for private practice but continues his research endeavors with the prestigious Bone & Joint Research Laboratory. He holds 19 patents on orthopaedic devices and is a surgeon designer for both hip and knee prosthesis systems. A noted speaker, Dr. Hofmann is the recipient of numerous awards, and his writings have been published in dozens of medical journals and books. He is the founder of Operation Walk Utah, a non-profit organization dedicated to providing hip and knee replacements to those who can’t afford it.

Dr. Hofmann graduated from the University of Texas Southwestern School of Medicine and completed his surgery internship and residency at Parkland Memorial Hospital in Dallas, and his fellowship at Montreal General Hospital with Dr. Joe Miller.
